

O'Hair-Bumpus Couple plan April wedding

Jaci Leyan O'Hair and Ron Bumpus, both of Lampasas, plan to exchange wedding vows in an April 23, 2009, ceremony at Playa del Carmen, Mexico.

Miss O'Hair is the daughter of Jerry and Rebecca O'Hair of Lampasas.

She is a 2004 Lampasas High School graduate and earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Tarleton State University-Central Texas in 2008.

Miss O'Hair is employed by First Texas Bank.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of John R. and Jane Bumpus, and Bill and Susie Pringle.

A 1999 Lampasas High School graduate, Mr. Bumpus graduated from Texas A&M University in 2003.

He is employed with Bumpus Real Estate Services.

Texas Western event on tap

What started 13 years ago as a small gathering of fiddle and western swing fans at the home of Mitz and Nan Ray has grown into one of the premier events for "Texas-born" music in the country.

The Texas Western Swing Heritage Association of Belton will host the 13th annual Texas Western Swing Showcase on March 21 at Belton's Bell County Expo Center.

The showcase is the main event for the Texas Western Swing Heritage Association, which brings together musical talent for both listening and dancing.

Doors will open at the Expo Center's assembly hall at 11 a.m., and music will start at noon and continue through 5 p.m.

Dinner, by advance reservation only, will be served at 5:30 p.m. A dance will be from 8 p.m. to midnight. Tables may be reserved.

Featured musicians include two-time World Champion Fiddler Randy Elmore; Vocalist of the Year and Entertainer of the Year Dave Alexander; two-time Grammy Award winning musicians Bobby Flores and Ricky Turpin; Texas State Fiddle Champion Wes Westmoreland; and Robert Weeks.

Admission for the afternoon is $15. Dinner tickets are $8.50 and must be purchased by March 16. Dance admission is $15.

Contact the Bell County Expo office at (254) 939-8390 for advance tickets and group tables.

To be eligible, a student must achieve a grade-point average of 3.5 or higher.

Deuel-Miller

Couple exchange vows at Lampasas church

New Covenant Church in Lampasas was the setting for the Oct. 11, 2008, wedding of Colleen Shea Deuel and Raymond Matthew Miller.

The bride is the daughter of retired USMC Master Sgt. Brian J. Deuel of Jacksonville, N.C., and the late Anna Bettie Deuel. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bettie of Lampasas, and Mary Margaret Deuel of Spring and the late Jim Deuel.

The groom is the son of Robert and Stella Miller and the grandson of Ruby Miller, all of Lampasas.

Kenneth Higgins, uncle of the groom, officiated the afternoon, double-ring ceremony.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length, sleeveless gown of white satin.

The bodice featured a scalloped neckline and had pearl beading on the front and back.

Her veil of tulle was held in place by a silver and pearl tiara and had appliques of alencon lace and pearls on the cathedral train.

The veil was handmade by the bride's grandmother and was first worn by the bride's mother at her 1988 wedding.

Sara Crisp was maid of honor, and Lauren Clancy served as bridesmaid.

Attendants wore black palazzo pants and red shimmer satin tops trimmed with rhinestones. They carried hand-tied bouquets of white alstromeria.

Flower girl was Andrea Bettie, cousin of the bride. She wore a red-skirted dress with a white bodice. She carried a basket of red silk rose petals.

Music was provided by Mrs. Pat Justice at the piano.

Tanner Dewald served as best man, and David Miller was his brother's groomsmen.

Ushers were Justin Harris, the bride's cousin, and Chris Miller, brother of the groom.

Ringbearer was the bride's cousin, Andrew Bettie Jr.

The bride's three-tiered white hazelnut cake was decorated with candy pearls and topped with fresh Gerber daisies that matched the bride's bouquet.

The groom's marble cake was

Colleen and Raymond Miller

covered in chocolate basketweave icing and topped with a soccer ball likeness made from cake.

The couple is at home in Aurora, Colo.

The bride is a 2007 graduate of Lampasas High School. She attended Central Texas College and is continuing her education at Concord Career College in Aurora.

The groom is a 2006 Lampasas High School graduate and is an airman first class in the U.S. Air Force stationed at Buckley Air Force Base in Aurora.

Birthday celebration

Lothar Matthys of Lampasas was honored on his 90th birthday with a party at Faith Lutheran Church with family, friends and neighbors in attendance, including siblings, Alma Matthys of Wharton, Helen McGee and Irene Matthys of Houston and Richard Matthys of Lawton, Okla. Mr. Matthys was born Feb. 20, 1919, in Wharton. Here he follows an annual family tradition of blowing out the candles on his cake with his grandson, Josh Matthys of Pflugerville, who was born on his grandfather's birthday in 1985.

Valentine's royalty

Regal Nursing & Rehab crowned June Randall and Andy Bailey as its Valentine's king and queen at a recent dinner at the facility.

Lake Victor's annual meeting coming Saturday

The fifth annual Lake Victor Community Center meeting is Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at the community center.

A potluck supper will be served, followed by a short meeting and game night.

Raffles slated for museum

Three items will be raffled during this year's Lampasas Needle Art & Quilt Show set March 6-7 at the Lampasas County Courthouse.

They include an antique quilt, donated by Judy Chapin; a beaded evening bag with a Texas flag pattern given by Phyllis Poehlmann; and a crocheted afghan given by Susan Detrick.

All items may be viewed at Shooting Star Books and Gifts on East Third Street until the show, at which time they will be on exhibit at the courthouse.

Drawings will be held March 7 at 3:30 p.m., and results will be available by phoning 556-2224.

Raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5 where the items are on display or through any Needle Art and Quilt Show committee member.

Show admission is $5 for adults and $3 for children under 12.

A bake sale will be held at the museum, 303 S. Western, during show times.

Entries of needlework and quilts will be accepted Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the museum.

GOP meeting to be held

The Lampasas County Republican Party will hold its executive meeting Wednesday at the Lampasas County Office Building at noon. Please note the change in date and location.

All interested parties are welcome to attend.

Executive board

Oak Hill Cemetery Association's Executive Board will meet today at 4 p.m. at the conference room in City Hall.

The public is welcome to attend.

Tea party set at museum

Keystone Square Museum's Teddy Bear Tea Party, for girls ages 4 to 8, is April 11 at 2 p.m.

Admission is free, but reservations must be made. Seating is limited to the first 40 children.

To reserve a seat, phone 556-2224, and leave a message with the child's name and age, along with an adult's name and phone number.
