Marvin Arms
Mr. Arms

Funeral services for Marvin Arms, 65, were April 24, 2009, at Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Bertram with Daryl Johnston officiating. Burial was at Bear Creek Cemetery with Masons as pallbearers.

Mr. Arms died April 21. He was born Aug. 26, 1943, in Lampasas, the son of J.D. and Vestine Annie Lynch Arms.

Mr. Arms was in construction for most of his life. He was a member of the VFW, Masons Chapter and Council, Temple Commandary and Eastern Star Chapter.

He enjoyed fishing and hunting. Survivors include his wife, Theo, of Liberty Hill; a son, Marco Arms and Melinda of San Antonio; four daughters, Mellissa Arms of Stanford, Texas, Connie Durkin of Liberty Hill, Dianne Beeson and Eric of Leander and Kristen Hanalon of North Carolina; 14 brothers and sisters, Bobby Arms, Joyce Heiney, Jim Arms, Charles Arms, Laura Arms, Betty Ackerman, Patsy Dunlap, Donna Daniels, Nancy Lindsay, Wesley Arms, Lloyd Arms, Jannetta Kattner, Mickey Arms and Rosemary Smith; seven grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by a son, Jesse Arms; a brother, Donald Arms; and a sister, Nelda Foshion. Arrangements by Clements-Wilcox Funeral Home in Burnet.

Ronald Green
Mr. Green

Funeral services for lifelong Lampasas resident Ronald Harris Green, 70, were May 4, 2009, at

First Baptist Church with Minister Reid Schaub officiating. Burial followed at Townsen Cemetery.

Mr. Green died May 2 at his residence.

He was born Oct. 25, 1938, in Lampasas, the son of James McKinley and Iris Bernice Harris Green.

Mr. Green grew up in Lampasas, and after graduating from high school joined the U.S. Army.

He married Patricia A. Porter on Dec. 31, 1957, in Lometa.

Mr. Green was a member of Second Baptist Church and Kiwanis Club of Lampasas.

He worked for many years as a butcher for Lang's Minimax in Lampasas.

Mr. Green enjoyed working with the youth of Lampasas, teaching archery in 4-H and teaching Sunday School.

Survivors include his wife of Lampasas; two sons, Tommy D. Green of Dallas and Michael Green and wife, Karyn, of Lampasas; one sister, Nelda Dybdahl and husband, Duane, of Austin; five grandchildren, Charity Green, Kristen Green, Ashley Green, Zane Green and Abbie Green; one great-grandchild, Levi Moss; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or Townsen Cemetery Association.

her position. Jerry Grayson in Place 1, Evan Stubbs (filling an unexpired term) in Place 3 and John Cole, Place 6, have no challengers.

Bradley Neely is vying with incumbent Robert McCauley for the Place 2 seat.

Lometa City Council: Seats on the ballot include those of the mayor, Cynthia Kirby, who was appointed. The position has one year left in the unexpired term. She is being challenged by former Lometa Mayor Robert McClinton.

Councilwoman Judy Hall did not file for an at-large seat that has one year left on an unexpired term, but Kyle Walton did file for Ms. Hall's unexpired term. Rigo Reyes and Donnie Bell are running for a full two-year term for an at-large seat.

Lampasas ISD Board of Trustees: Seats to be filled include Place 1, Ron Farr; Place 2, Andrew Irvin; Place 3, Max Keele; and Place 5, Linda Floerke, who was appointed after the death of William Haisler last year. A one-year unexpired term is up for election.

Dan Claussen is challenging Keele for the Place 3 spot, and Mark Bishop is running against Irvin for the Place 2 position.

Voters may select either "for" or "against" the local-option election, styled Proposition 1, which reads: "The legal sale of beer and wine for off-premise consumption only."

Two entities have unchallenged contests. Kempner City Council and Lometa Independent School District are not holding elections this year.
